DAY

1

COUNTRY STARS DRIVING TOUR

This driving tour highlights famous artists that have called Sumner County home: Conway Twitty, Johnny Cash, Roy Orbison, and Marty Stuart. At Hendersonville Memory Gardens, hear Joanne Cash, Johnny's sister, share memories of her beloved brother.

VISIT THE JOHNNY CASH MUSEUM

Explore the life and legacy of Johnny Cash at this downtown Nashville museum that also includes exhibits regarding Cash's life in Sumner County as well as other artists who called the county home. Eat lunch on your own at the museum's meat and three restaurant or visit Broadway for an unforgettable meal!

HISTORIC GALLATIN SQUARE TOUR

See where Randy's Record Shop originally stood, learn about the tragic motorcycle accident that altered Roy Orbison's life, and explore the stores of the historic downtown Gallatin Square that dates back to 1802. Shop the Square, relax in a local coffee shop, or eat a snack in one of the great restaurants!

PALACE THEATRE'S "BEST OF JOHNNY CASH"

Enjoy the best songs and duets of Johnny Cash's years as a late-night talk show host, viewed in the historic Gallatin Palace Theatre, the oldest original silent movie theater still in operation in Tennessee! Duets include Cash with Loretta Lynn, Kris Kristofferson, The Statler Brothers, Ray Charles, and more! Popcorn and drink included.
