The Retreats at South Water Manor

Beautifully situated on the grounds of the historic, FitzGerald Manor, blocks from the bustling downtown of Gallatin, Tennessee, these beautiful guesthouses exude historical charm while boasting the luxurious amenities of today. Originally built in the 1860s, and used as servants quarters and a summer kitchen, they each underwent a complete renovation in 2023. Stripping off layers of plaster to expose the original brick walls, built from bricks made right on the property, created a beautiful backdrop for the space. Architectural details and nuances to the past make a stay in the Retreats both educational and relaxing.

Estate of Grace at Pilot Knob

The home sits on the front of the property with a lakeview in the front and is surrounded by trees along the back. The outdoor area features 3 covered porches and a side deck. The back covered porch is oversized and overlooks the in-ground salt water pool. This is the perfect place for large amounts of people to gather. The home is designed to provided spaces for connection and restoration for you and your guests. On the main floor, you can gather in the living room for great conversation or game, enjoy lounge time in the library, and there's plenty of room for everyone to eat a family-style meal around the big table in the dining room.

Rose Cabin at Pilot Knob

The Rose Cabin at Pilot Knob is loaded with historic charm! This one bedroom cabin sleeps up to 6 guests and is one of three properties on a quiet, private estate. On the main floor, you and your guests can gather in the living room for great conversation or game night, play music on the record player, and there's plenty of room for everyone to enjoy a meal around the table and kitchen bar. The Cabin sits on the front of the property and features a large covered front porch with a swing and lots of seating to enjoy the wildlife as they come through.

Lake Cabin of Tranquility at Pilot Knob

The Lake Cabin of Tranquility at The Gathering Place is loaded with historic charm and only 20 minutes from downtown Nashville! This two bedroom cabin sleeps up to 10 guests and is one of three properties on a quiet, private estate that was built in 1830. On the main floor, you and your guests can gather in the living room for great conversation or game night, and there's plenty of room for everyone to eat a family-style meal around the big table in the eat-in kitchen.

The property has a lake view from every room, a large back porch with rockers & a porch swing, access for canoeing, as well as outdoor seating, a fire pit, and grill—perfect for an evening under the stars.
